"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen." Matthew 28:19-20

Dear supporting pastors and churches,

Happy New Year to everyone. We rejoice in those who have come to Christ through the ministry of GBBC. Some men have found themselves in roles they were not fully prepared for, yet God has been graciously at work in their lives, teaching them the truths of Scripture. The lessons shared through the ministry have helped many grow stronger and steadier in their walk with the Lord. The following testimonies mean a lot because they remind us that the work is bearing fruit in churches and in lives.

"This season has marked a new beginning in my spiritual life. For many years, I called myself a Christian without fully understanding what that truly meant. I was raised in a poor family, and Bible study was never part of my upbringing. As a result, my faith lacked depth and clear understanding. Today, I lead a church of about thirty adults. Yet through recent teaching on salvation, I have come to realize that I was not walking in full alignment with biblical truth. I thank God for bringing you into my life at this crucial time. I am seeking His forgiveness for leading His people without a solid foundation in His Word. Here in Kenya, many pastors and churches have drifted away from biblical teaching and embraced traditions instead. This shift has weakened the meaning and witness of Christianity in our nation. I am grateful to be learning it." –Daniel in Kenya

"I am writing to express my sincere gratitude for the theological education you provide. The training I received has played a vital role in the growth of our local church and has strengthened us in several important ways. It has deepened our commitment to biblical faithfulness, raising the quality of our teaching and preaching. It also gives our servants and leaders practical tools to lead with clarity and confidence. In addition, it has renewed our vision for carrying out the Great Commission. Thank you for your steadfast commitment to Scripture and for equipping us to serve the Lord with excellence. We pray that He will continue to bless and expand your ministry." –Jorge in Venezuela

Please continue to pray for these men and others. What a blessing that God can use us in the lives and ministries of these men in other countries while He has us stateside, continuing to assist my mother on a weekly basis. Although her strength gradually declines, she seems more at peace with her situation. That has eased much of the strain on our family. Thank you to everyone who has prayed for her.

My wife, Myra, published her second book this month. This Single Gift was written to encourage single ladies to love and steward the lives God has given them, and several married ladies who read early copies shared that the message encouraged and challenged them well. More information about this book and Sacrifice of Praise can be found at myranoel.com/books.

We are so grateful for your ongoing prayers and support of the ministry.

In His service,
Rob Johnson
